AFFIDAVIT OF SANDRA C. PHILLIPS

I, SANDRA C. PHILLIPS, of the City of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri hereby make oath and say as follows that:

1. As part of my job description, I am responsible for maintaining the patent docket at the firm of Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C., and, as such, I have knowledge of the following matters to which I hereinafter state.
2. A Notification of Missing Requirements Under 35 U.S.C. 371 In The United States Designated/Elected Office (DO/EO/US) for the referenced patent application was forwarded to our firm via U.S. Mail (hereinafter the "Notice").

3. In the course of my routine docket activities, I reviewed the Notice for completeness and accuracy and entered the due date for submitting a response into our internal docket system.
4. Given that the time period for responding to the Notice seemed unusually short, it caused me to carefully review the Date of Mailing of the Notice and the receipt of same in our office. Upon my review of the respective dates, I observed that the Notice contained a mailing date of November 14, 2001 from the United States Patent and Trademark Office and a date of receipt in our office of January 5, 2002.
5. I continued to docket the due date for response for the normal two month response date and called to the attention of the attorney responsible for filing the response the apparent mailing date/receipt date discrepancy.
6. Pursuant to a telephone conversation between our firm's Intellectual Property Paralegal, Nina Moats, and Ms. Charitta A. Burt, the individual who issued the Notice, I am making this Affidavit to demonstrate to the Examiner that a discrepancy exists between the date of mailing and the date of receipt of the Notice.
